

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

ACROSS

1 to collaborate secretly, unlawfully 7 a natural or legal person who receives assets 10 not genuine, an illegal copy 12 to imitate illegally 13 partial, not objective 14 stealing, larceny 16 a common abbreviation of earnings before several types of deductions 19 not permitted, unlawful 20 a court order that requires a party to do or stop doing something 22 a serious crime punishable by deprivation of liberty 23 someone currently in office 24 loss or compensation received thereof 29 someone who purchases goods or services 30 swindling 31 the presiding officer 35 basic, central, most important 36 the offender, someone who commits a crime 37 carelessness that leads to injury or damages 38 to go to and be present at 39 misappropriation of funds 41 to legally prohibit something 43 a collateral held by a creditor to secure debt repayment 44 to charge with a crime 45 the act of obtaining money or property by threats or violence 46 a tangible object or recording used as proof is called ... evidence 47 to resolve a dispute 48 to end, cease, dismiss (a case or agreement) 50 a draft law 52 legal proceedings, lawsuit 54 making something less severe, circumstances that reduce the penalty 57 the person sued or charged with a crime 58 the process of buying goods or services for a legal person 59 a brief, written record of something

DOWN

1 a scam 2 to consider, think, judge 3 a harmful action, violence 4 a call for action or rebellion against authority, the state, government 5 the law prohibits, forbids, ... 6 people captured and used to negotiate terroristic demands 8 the crime of burning property 9 lying under oath, giving false testimony 11 an organisation, institution, separate being or structure 13 money given as security for the release of someone under arrest during pretrial investigation 15 indirect, inconclusive evidence 17 money or other valuable given to someone in power in exchange for a favourable decision 18 personal or original source of experience 21 to get something or make someone do something by force or threats 25 to get, obtain, buy, learn 26 + 41 to obey, comply with 27 a breach of law, violation 28 to get, achieve, obtain 29 the most severe punishment, death penalty 30 confiscation, loss of property as punishment 32 to support with evidence, give additional proof 33 an object or unit, part of a list or collection 34 a change, addition, correction made to a document or legislation 38 to make worse or more severe 40 to send the accused back to the country where the person will be tried for a crime 42 a request to a court for a ruling or order 49 to avoid, escape, get away 51 an offer or price proposal 52 to deceive or intentionally mislead someone 53 the statute or law approved by the parliament 55 a portable firearm, weapon used for shooting 56 the amount of money the government imposes on goods and services upon sale, abbreviation