

FAMILY HISTORY

ACROSS

1 clever, skillful, able 4 any regularly repeated arrangements, especially designs 11 manner or condition of being; political organization of society 12 people living next door to or very near to the person referred to 13 relatives who lived a long time ago 15 to inquire, request an answer 16 backbone, stamina, resolution 18 having recently come into existence or use 19 a particular characteristic, quality, or tendency that someone or something has 24 to extend the duration of 25 a close romantic friendship between two people 26 look after and provide for the needs of 28 to repair something that is broken or not working 29 work performed for remuneration; acts of help or assistance 30 a formal ending of a marriage 31 one's mother and father 33 to choose, select, detach and remove 36 old cloth, especially one torn from a larger piece 37 instruments or simple pieces of equipment 39 something that someone says or writes which they know is untrue 40 to employ someone; to interest someone in something and keep them thinking about it 41 a moral or legal obligation; a responsibility 43 an interruption, a break in a line of 45 to confront and deal with or accept a difficult or unpleasant task, fact, or situation 46 to employ or utilize again 48 religious images or people who others admire and even seem to worship 50 a married woman, spouse 51 an associate or coworker typically in a profession 52 television (abbreviation) 53 to be in the right place or a suitable place 54 an object for a child to play with, typically a model or miniature replica of something 56 to gradually diminish, move away 57 accounts of imaginary or real people and events told for entertainment 58 an important topic or problem for debate or discussion 59 to expire, pass away, stop living

DOWN

2 enjoyment, happiness, satisfaction 3 money owed (plural) 4 a couple, members of a pair 5 a job, an exchange, a barter 6 to restore to friendship or harmony; to make no longer opposed 7 a resource with economic value 8 a small domesticated carnivorous mammal 9 time spent alive 10 to link, connect, come together 14 a formal assertion, a financial document 17 a small piece of wood, metal, or other material that is used to hold or fasten things or to hang things on 20 commercial business or personal, romantic relationships 21 ability to control people and events 22 to do things for pleasure, as children do 23 the state of being legally responsible for something 27 brothers or sisters 28 a loan used to purchase or maintain a home, plot of land, or other real estate 29 a person who has a job, position, or title after someone else 31 the origin of a person's ancestry 32 to deal with the problems or needs of a person or thing; to move in a particular direction 33 activities concerned with achieving and using power in a country or organization 34 to divide something between two or more people 35 serious disagreement and argument 38 a large group of people who live together in an organized way 42 to pass from a higher place or level to a lower one 44 suitable or appropriate, correct 47 trade or other organisations that come together 49 complete happiness 55 having lived or existed for many years