

THE MIDWIFE'S ADVICE

ACROSS

1 to utter a loud, sharp, piercing cry 3 a condition or way of being at a particular time 6 to revive, bring back to life, rise from the dead 7 a short piece of music with lyrics 10 torment, intense physical or mental suffering 12 cloth made from yarn or fibres 15 an evil spell, an incantation wishing bad luck upon another 18 an occurrence, incident, occasion 20 a creative, imaginative, visual, performative expression of feelings or important ideas 22 an early, unintentional end to a pregnancy 23 to want something very much with a feeling of sadness 25 scarce, unusual, uncommon, unique 27 a legendary Chinese girl who disguises herself as a male warrior, a Disney movie 28 existence measured in sequential events, years, hours, etc. 30 to repair something that is broken, torn, or no longer working 31 to take place, occur 33 to relieve pain, bring comfort, make someone feel calm or less worried 35 total earnings in the form of wages and salaries, the return on investments, pension distributions, and other receipts 37 to rule, be the main feeling or quality in a situation 38 to rip apart by force 41 the process of giving birth 44 constantly recurring symbols or motifs in literature, painting, or mythology 45 to grasp, carry, keep, detain, have power over someone 46 to think about problems or fears 47 to pass away, to expire 48 of times long past, the early history

DOWN

1 to cease to happen, to end 2 to employ, deploy, put into action 3 to thread, combine, or make tense 4 to do something, behave in a certain way 5 a situation in which everyone has the same rights or value 8 an empty space or opening, interruption in continuity 9 the immaterial essence, animating principle, or actuating cause of an individual life 11 a group of people who live at the same time and are about the same age 12 to experience something physical or emotional 13 notwithstanding; however; in spite of that 14 the message that is intended or expressed or signified 16 unsuccessful, abortive, failed to be realized 17 to form (a fabric) by interlacing (yarn, etc), esp on a loom 19 to attempt, make an effort 21 to overcome by force; subdue; defeat someone 24 purpose, target, objective 26 to fix something that is broken or damaged 29 the protagonist of Disney / Pixar's film Brave 32 to be unsuccessful in an attempt 33 to look for something carefully 34 someone associated with the counterculture of the 1960s 36 the realm of evil in J.R.R.Tolkien's fictional world 39 a yellow precious metal 40 the beginning or cause of something, a baby plant 42 come into existence 43 currently 44 a particular appearance or quality