How much do you really know?
What truly matters? Close your eyes and counter Darkness.

Write down 10 words
that first come to your mind. Then write a short poem to decipher
their message.

Here's an example!

bird	play	foam	rest	dance
fire	river	hold	easy	breath

Poem

*Hold your breath.
Hear the firebird
Play in the river foam.
Dance is easy
When you rest.*
